

I have been very pleased with the "Do Not Call". My time at home has been very pleasant. We have probably received one call in the past two months, which is great compared to the millions of calls you receive otherwise! Do not change the Law. Leave it as is. It is obviously doing the job!